Faithful Midwife, as you delivered the Hebrews safely out of the long labor of slavery, draw us forth this day into the new day. Surround and sustain us this day that we may not lose heart in this week of weeks. Amen.	Almighty and ever-present God, sow courage in us this day that we might receive your anointed servant who embodies a wisdom and love that is foolishness to the world. Help us live in such a way that all the world may come to recognize you in our love of one another. Amen.	Shepherd of all souls, feed, guide, comfort, and agitate us this day. Lead us to love in ways that feed the hungry, guide the wayward, comfort the afflicted, and agitate the complacent. Amen.	Guide me, O my great Redeemer, pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but you are mighty; hold me with your powerful hand. Bread of heaven, bread of heaven, feed me now and evermore, feed me now and evermore. <small>*Verse 1 of hymn "Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah"</small>	Grieving God, your Son faced his day of death just as he had embraced every day of his life: faithfully and with good courage. Grant that we who have been born out of his wounded side may be found faithful and courageous in this, our day. Amen.	Bringer of serenity, calm our hearts with your way, truth, and life. Bringer of stillness, ground our hope in your promises. Bringer of silence, inhabit our holy waiting.
Peace, be still.	Peace, be still.	Peace, be still.	Peace, be still.	Peace, be still.	Peace, be still.
